

VILLAGE CANDIDATES HAVE CLEAR SAILING AT ANNUAL ELECTION

Mayor, Trustees, Treasurer
Without Opposition
Tuesday

The annual village election here Tuesday promises to turn out little excitement, inasmuch as the ballot treasurer to succeed William A. Ross and the five candidates on the People's ticket are expected to be elected to office by a light vote.

The fact that no opposition to the present office-holders has developed, is regarded by citizens as being an endorsement of the administration of President George B. Bartlett and the board of trustees, three of whom, Trustees Lux, Lowry and Drom, are up for re-election with President Bartlett. James M. Dunn, candidate for second Mrs. Oliver Mathews and E. E. Ing, completes the slate of candidates for village office.

On the same ballot appear the names of Louise Vos and G. A. Whitmore for library directors for 3-year terms. The two candidates will succeed Mrs. Oliver Mathews and E. E. Ing. The four holders on the 6-member board are Frank R. King, Dr. Williams, Mrs. John Drogan and Mrs. W. W. Warriner.

Tax Measure Proposed.
A small separate ballot that voters will be asked to mark Tuesday carries the proposal to levy a tax not exceeding two mills on the dollar for the support of the Antioch volunteer fire department. The act authorizing such a levy has been passed by the legislature, and it is believed the measure will carry here Tuesday.

VOLUMES ARE TAKEN FROM FOUR COUNTY RURAL SCHOOLS

Fingerprints and Marks of
Windows

Four Lake county rural schools have been visited this week by a prowler in urgent need of information contained within the covers of encyclopedias. A screw driver employed to pry open windows, proves a useful aid to the learned gentleman.

A round of schools was made on Monday and Tuesday nights. Oakland school, one mile east of Leola, was robbed of Compton's, valued at $55; twelve volumes of the World Book and twelve of Compton's were missing at Rosecrans school; Gages Lake reports the theft of a $30 dictionary. Volumes of similar nature are missing from Bean Hill and southern Wisconsin schools.

Fingerprints of sufficient distinctness to identify the robber may be found by the sheriff or his assistants. The only plausible reason given for the theft is that an unemployed man or crook is attempting to earn money by selling the books second-hand in some other portion of the country.

ALLEDALE WINS TOURNEY TROPHY

Legionnaires Pleased With Tourney; To Make It
Annual Event

The first annual junior basketball tournament sponsored by the American Legion was won by the Alleendale team, with Waukegan as runners-up, in a game which was exciting despite wide variance in score, with clever work displayed by both teams. The game ended 33-14.

The consolation game Thursday evening was played between the Antioch Midgets and Lake Villa, ending in a narrow victory for Lake Villa, 15-14. In the afternoon game between Lake Villa and Waukegan, to determine which team would challenge Alleendale for the trophy, Waukegan was easily victorious, with a 42-13 score.

Sponsors Pleased.
The American Legion officers, feeling that a contest of this nature is one of the best means of developing clean sportsmanship and cooperation among the younger boys, and considering that this tournament has done much in that line, have decided to hold this event annually.

Merrill Cunningham is the owner of a new Ford purchased Tuesday from the Whitmore Chevrolet company.

MUMPS REIGN IN HICKORY CHURCH; NO SERVICE SUNDAY

Spiering's Opposition and a Child's Disease Prevent
Holding Services

Sensation seekers assembled at the Hickory Corners Methodist church Sunday, anticipating forcible action to overcome the refusal of Clarence Spiering and his family, who have occupied the church since their home was burned two months ago, to allow services to be held there, were disappointed when the trustees decided to call off the services.

Reporters, photographers, and news reel camera men clustered at the church, and it was necessary for Sheriff Lester Tiffany to direct traffic.

Child Has Mumps.
Spiering verified the large "mumps" sign tacked on the front door by explaining that his only child, Dorothy Ann, had been afflicted with that disease for several days. He also stated that, due to the fact that the church was furnished with household equipment, it would be most inconvenient to hold services.

Pastor Approves.
The Rev. Mr. Bohl, who was to have preached the sermon, expressed himself as relieved by the decision of the trustees. "The service could not have been attended in worshipful spirit, and it would have been a crime had violent action been taken." Spiering was acquitted Friday, in the court of Judge Perry L. Persons, of the charge of malicious mischief brought by the church trustees. It is understood that legal action will be started this week to compel Spiering and his family to vacate their stronghold.

Judge Ben Miller To Address Men's Club; Invite Wives

A special occasion will be made of the next dinner and program of the Men's Club to be held tomorrow evening, April 17, at the Methodist church.

Judge Benjamin H. Miller, Libertyville and Chicago, will give an address following the 6:30 dinner. His subject will be, "Waterway from the Gulf to the Lakes via the Mississippi River." Judge Miller is well-known in Lake county, having served in many public offices. An informal program of music and speeches will precede the address.

This will be ladies' night. Each member and friend of the club is invited to bring his wife, daughter, or friend, as an honored guest. Dinner will be served by the ladies of circle No. 2 of the Methodist church, at 50 cents a plate.

Ada Hess Speaks At 2nd Mother and Daughter Banquet

Mothers and daughters gathered at the high school last evening for the second annual banquet of the home economics members, who highly pleased with the address of Miss Ada Hess, state supervisor of home economics education. Her subject was "After Graduation, What?" in which she treated very practically the vocations open to girls interested in domestic arts.

Girls Entertain.
The program followed a fine dinner, deftly served by the boys of the agricultural department, and was opened by a vocal solo, "Mother, Mother," sung by Wilma Muech, accompanied by Beaulieu Wilkenson. The address of welcome was given by Rose Pederson, president of the home economics club, and was followed by two violin solos, played by Clara Christensen. After a reading by Marguerite Galtier, Miss Hess gave her address.

The toastmistress, Mrs. Richey, expressed her pleasure in seeing over eighty mothers and daughters present.

FIRST RESCUE OF SEASON IS MADE AT CHANNEL LAKE

Jack Chulupa, of Channel Lake, was rescued from probable drowning Thursday afternoon, after his motor boat had overturned at the south end of Channel lake. The rescue was made by Fred Runyard, Tom Runyard and Tom Sullivan.

Chulupa had been fishing in his motor boat, until the high wind and waves suddenly overturned the boat. The icy waters prevented him from attempting to swim to shore, but he clung to the motor until his plight was noticed by men on shore.

M'MILLIN WILL WRESTLE HAGEN IN SEMI-WINDUP

The wrestling bout between the Grayslake wrestler, Jim McMillin, and George Hagen, Brooklyn, at the Chicago stadium next Tuesday evening, is expected to draw a large following of Lake county fans. This bout has been arranged as a semi-windup of a program in which the Jim London-Kola Kwarlana bout will be the chief attraction, as London's title is at stake.

FOREST PARK MAN TO REOPEN PALACE

The Antioch Palace will re-open for amateur boxing May 3, under the direction of Mickey Hafferty; it was announced this week.

Hafferty is the owner of a Forest Park estate, and formerly owner of a Chicago radio station. He present plans mature, it is possible that activities at the Palace will be broadcast.

Drop Charges Against Fox Lake Youths

Lack of evidence with which to secure a conviction of two Fox Lake boys who were charged with malicious mischief, following the shooting out of Florentino glass windows of St. Peter's church here last December, prompted the state's attorney's office yesterday to advise dismissal of the case, according to Col. A. V. Smith.

Following the arrest of the youths, Clarence Howard is alleged to have confessed that he and three companions, Clarence Ostrander, Frank Smith and Howard Johnson, were rabbit hunting December 2, and as they neared the church, Ostrander and Smith fired three shots at the windows.

Several from Antioch attended a tea given by Mrs. Edward L. Bradley at the Alleendale Farm Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Harold Murray of Chicago, was the chief speaker.

E. V. Jeffers spent Saturday in Chicago.

The grand opening of the Hudec Radio and Auto Supply is announced for Saturday of this week.

The new business is located in the Morley building, 888 Main street, and is under the personal management of S. J. Hudec, who announces that the firm will handle almost everything in the auto necessary line, and specialize in batteries and tires, radio sales and services on all makes of radio.

Mr. Hudec is not a stranger to many Antioch people, as he has owned property and maintained his summer home at Crow Lake for the past three years, while the business of the incorporated company which he heads has been conducted at 4209 Milwaukee avenue, Chicago.

Sandwich Shop to Open Here.
The "Snappy Service Sandwich Shop" will open its doors, under the management of Mrs. Abbie Monnier, about May 1. It was learned this week.

Mrs. Monnier received experience in this line when she conducted a delicatessen shop in Chicago. The fixtures are being installed in the Brogan building this week by Mr. Monnier, who stated that his family expected to make their home here soon.

$2,000 FIRE RUINS COTTAGE INTERIOR

Department Called to Stop
Three Grass Fires and
Hay Stack Blaze

The interior and furnishings of a cottage owned by Mrs. Ed. Baumrocher in the Grand View subdivision at Lake Catharine were destroyed by fire late Sunday afternoon. The loss was estimated at $2,000.

Mrs. Baumrocher and her son had left for the city about half an hour before the blaze was noticed by neighbors, who notified the fire department. The origin of the fire is unknown. The cottage was insured.

Three Grass Fires Sunday.

The Antioch volunteer fire department answered three calls for grass fires Sunday. The first was in the Morley subdivision on Lake Catharine, the second in the Ernest Simons subdivision at Lake Marie, in the morning, and the third was a sweeping fire near Cedar Crest country club, which required the services of the Antioch, Fox Lake and Ingleside departments before it could be controlled.

A blaze which burned the hay stack of Mrs. Elberta Straghan, and threatened the buildings, was extinguished by the firemen late Friday afternoon.

"The Messiah" To be Sung by Robed Choruses

The greatest of all oratorios, Handel's "Messiah," will be presented to music lovers in just a week from tomorrow night, Friday, April 24, at the high school auditorium. The eleven chorus numbers will be sung by the combined high school and community choruses of nearly a hundred voices. The chorus will be robed.

In addition to being the greatest oratorio, it is also one of the most difficult, with the counterpoint writing very highly developed. E. V. Jeffers, the director, has interpreted these passages very effectively.

Five soloists also will appear in arias and recitatives of this work. The program will be given as follows:

Numbers Selected.

Part I—"Comfort Ye My People," "Every Valley Shall Be Exalted," "And the Glory of the Lord," "For Behold, Darkness Shall Cover the Earth," "The People that Walked in Darkness," "The Blind," "And the Angel of the Lord Came Upon Them," "And Suddenly There Was with the Angel," "Glory to God," "Then Shall the Eyes of the Blind," "He Shall Feed His Flock," "Come Unto Him," "Ho Was Despaired," "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs," "And with His Stripes We Are Healed," "Thy Rebuke Hath Broken His Heart," "Behold, and See," "Why Do the Nations so Furiously Rage," and "Hallelujah."

Part II—"I Know that My Redeemer Liveth," "Since by Man Came Death," "By Man Came Also," "For as in Adam," "Even so in Christ," and "Worthy is the Lamb."

The time for the performance of these numbers will be approximately two hours.

Church Squatter "Makes" the Movies

Score another for Clarence Spiering. Not only does he get his name in all the newspaper headlines in the country through the unusual business of making his home in the Hickory Corners Methodist church without asking anybody's permission, but now he's gone and got into the "pitchers." Proof of it is offered in the news reel that will be shown at the Kenosha theatre starting at the midnight show Saturday and for three days and evenings following.

AGED ANTIOCH RESIDENT DIES

Henry C. Pitman, Lake Co.
Pioneer, Is Taken
by Death

Henry Thomas Pitman, 83, a resident of the village of Antioch for twenty-eight years, passed away at his home on Victoria street Monday morning, the victim of advanced age and Bright's disease.

His birth was in Somersetshire, England, December 16, 1847, but when he was 9 years old he came with his parents to a farm four miles south of Antioch, near Fox Lake, where he spent his life farming until twenty-eight years ago.

He was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Hucker, a girl of this vicinity, December 1, 1872. She died in 1927.

He is survived by two sons—Earle, who lived with him in Antioch, and George, of Friday Harbor, Wash.—one daughter—Eva, (Mrs. Rolla Shultz), Antioch; a sister—Annie Hucker, of Round Lake, and five children. One daughter, Mrs. Thomas Brompton, died in 1922.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock at the house yesterday afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Bohl officiating. Interment is in Hillside cemetery.

Mr. Van Patten has made no announcement of his plans for the future.

LIGHTNING DARTS IN AND OUT OF STORES, HOMES

A flash of lightning during the April thunder shower experienced yesterday left its mark in several shops and homes. Having knocked off the chimney top of the Williams Brothers store, thrown over the clean-off, and put the telephone out of commission, it skipped over to Radtke's barber shop, through an aerial, it is believed, leaving a strip of scorched wall paper in its wake, and then on to burn out meters in the Pantry, the Blue Front Store, the Shell Filling Station, and the homes of Rolla Shultz and Robert Wilton.

CONTRACTOR BEGINS STREET WIDENING

Contractor Huma Hansen began the work of widening Main street at the intersection of Orchard street, Monday. Most of the material needed is already here and the work will be rushed to completion, according to Hansen. The improvement does not occasion inconvenience to traffic as the work is all on the west side. Neither Main nor Orchard streets have been closed.

INVESTIGATE MAN'S MYSTERIOUS DEATH AT LAKE VILLA

Coroner Seeking Proof of Suicide or Murder—
Inquest Delayed

Inquest into the death of Harry W. Wehrenberg, 38, of 217 S. Milwaukee avenue, Libertyville, who was found shot in his car at Lake Villa Sunday night, is being delayed, pending further investigations by State's Attorney A. V. Smith.

Believed a Suicide.
Latest reports indicate that Wehrenberg shot himself, in despair over an illicit love affair. At first it was believed that Wehrenberg was shot by members of a gang because of powder marks found on the right hand, but it is the opinion of Sheriff Tiffany that the cheap type of gun used split flames from the side.

The Libertyville carpenter was discovered dead in his car with a bullet through his head Sunday evening by Frank Slazes, and was removed to L. G. Strang's undertaking parlors.

A Masonic funeral is being held at his home this afternoon.

High School Election Draws Spotlight of Interest Here Sat.

Administration Slate Wins;
Energetic Campaigns
Get Record Vote

Drawing the largest vote ever polled at a school election in Antioch township, high school district, the contest for the election of three board members held the spotlight of interest here Saturday afternoon, when a total of 864 voters registered a choice for their favorite candidates. F. O. Hawkins and Mrs. Jean Ferris, administration candidates for the contested 3-year terms, were the winners.

The ballot carried the names of Frank R. King and Fred O. Hawkins as candidates for the 3-year terms, and Mrs. Helen Osmond for the 2-year term to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of her husband, Lester Osmond. Mrs. Osmond, unopposed, received 516 votes.

Hawkins received 604 votes, King 335, and Mrs. Jean Ferris, whose name was written in on the ballot, 476.

Mrs. Ferris is well qualified for the duties connected with the office to which she has been elected and no doubt will give efficient service as a member of the board of education. Her election, in spite of the fact that her name did not appear on the ballot is conclusive proof of the fact that some rather astute campaigning was done by those interested in the personnel of the board. However, the welfare of the school is paramount, and Saturday's election, according to one candidate, has done much to create the interest that should be shown at all times in the community's most important civic institution.

Grade School Elects.

At the grade school election, held also Saturday afternoon, S. E. Pollock was re-elected president, and Mrs. Elsie Pierce and Lee Strang were put in as board members, without opposition. Mr. Pollock received 115 votes, Mrs. Pierce 114, and Mr. Strang 109.

Klass Elected School Trustee.

Otto S. Klass, Antioch clothier, was elected township school trustee over W. E. Drom, by a vote of 225 to 202. Klass succeeds Richard Kaye. The holdovers on the 3-member board are Henry Grimm and H. D. Minto.

Twelve Take Part In Comedy Play At St. Peter's

A 3-act comedy play, "Second Childhood," will be presented at St. Peter's hall tomorrow evening, by members of the dramatic club. The actors have been rehearsing for some time, and report that this is one of the most side-splitting comedies ever written.

Local Actors.

The character parts are played by Charles Paddock, Mary Chase, June Allner, Dudley Kennedy, Hilma Roeling, Elleen Osmond, Jessie Lawler, George Wagner, Homer La Plant, Carl Pachay, Paul Zelen, and Lillian Vykruza. The play is under the direction of Mrs. John Doyle. Miss Mabel Brogan has charge of tickets, and advertising is managed by Miss Patricia Kennedy and Mary Chase.

Special features have been arranged to be given between acts. The talent of members of the play cast is well known, and it is expected that the hall will be packed.

THE CONCEITED DRIVER

Conceit, which often finds expression in thoughtlessness, rudeness and selfishness, is considered of prime importance as a cause of automobile accidents, by Dr. Paul Schroeder, Illinois State Criminologist.

"An appreciation of the rights of others on the highways appears to be a more important qualification of a driver than even normal intelligence," he says.

Dr. Schroeder's opinion is backed up by statistics. He recently made a study in Detroit of 100 prisoners convicted with manslaughter with an automobile. Only three had serious physical defects, one was subject to epilepsy, and one was insane. The old idea that anyone in good health and with reasonable mental qualifications can drive an automobile safely, no longer holds water. The ego-centric driver, disregarding all but himself, taking chance after chance, whether he be mentally a genius or a moron, is a constant menace to life and property.

A little old-fashioned courtesy, which amounts to regard for the rights of others, is the individual cure for the conceited driver. He presents a problem that must be solved as he is responsible for a large part of motor accidents.

The year 1931 opened with a record-breaking motor fatality toll—2,410 deaths in January, an increase of 30 per cent over January, 1930. Here is grisly proof of the need for thorough-going investigation into every phase of the accident situation.

THE MAJESTY OF THE LAW

Those who have been shocked by the revelations in the recent New York vice investigations, culminating in murder, would do well to turn their attention to a fictionalized history of a magistrate's court in that city, called "The Vice Squad," by Joseph van Ralte, The Vanguard Press, publishers.

Mr. van Ralte describes the magistrate in his book as a "sensual, greedy, bulbous-eyed, pot-bellied old politician—civic weed, bereft of flower." He shows how women and girls of the underworld, whose trade depends upon men, are framed, arrested and grafted upon with the aid of shyster lawyers and crooked judges, all of them taking the lion's share of the girls' "earnings." He shows how influence and money can make the majesty of the law turn somersaults in the women's court.

New York is starting to clean house, but has an Aegean stables job on its hands. Conditions described by Mr. van Ralte may be found in other cities. It is terrifying to realize that the dispensing of "justice" can be made one of the best "rackets."

Graft, viciousness, framing, corruption, perjury, dishonesty—these qualities and others, play a large part in modern criminal procedure. And they will continue to do so until fundamental changes are made in the administration of justice and the people demand more character and less politics in public office.

MOTORISTS IN REVOLT

It would seem to a logical mind that the motorist contributes his share of the cost of highways and streets when he pays a gas tax of three or more cents a gallon. But in some states he must pay tribute to towns as well. More than a hundred municipalities—including such large cities as St. Louis, Kansas City, and New Orleans—are now levying municipal gas taxes on top of the state tax.

It is argued that motor cars wear out streets exactly as they wear out roads. So they do. The fair course of procedure—and one that has been adopted in several states—is to have a percentage of the tax allocated to municipalities.

However, the community gas tax, if it goes far enough, may be a good thing. It will stimulate the revolt of the motorists that has of late been gathering headway. The motorist pays a license tax, a registration tax, and in some cases a personal property tax on his car. He pays a state gasoline tax, which is often excessive. In some cases some of the funds he has paid out, ostensibly for highways, have been used for other purposes. He has become the target for legislatures seeking ways and means of raising money.

Unless motorists do something to stop higher gas taxes, it will not be long until the tax is the larger part of gasoline.

Automobiles in New York Receive a Blessing

Automobiles were blessed in front of the Roman Catholic Church of the Holy Family in New York city, known as the "Church of the Motorist." It was the first such public ceremony to be held in this city. Here is seen Rev. Daniel De Nijno, pastor of the church, blessing the cars.

ARMY GRID CAPTAIN

Meaning of "Decathlon"

The word is derived from Greek words signifying "ten athletic feats." In the Olympic games of 1928 the Decathlon was won by the athlete obtaining the highest total number of points in the following events: 1. One hundred meters flat. 2. Running broad jump. 3. Putting the 16-pound shot. 4. Running high jump. 5. Four hundred meters flat. 6. One hundred and ten meters hurdle race. 7. Throwing the discus. 8. Pole vault. 9. Throwing the javelin. 10. Fifteen hundred meters flat.

COMMENCE WORK ON LAKE VILLA OVERHEAD ROAD

School Election Arouses Interest; Williamson Is Elected

Work will soon be started on the road paying to cross the Soo line railroad. Part of the machinery is already here.

Keen interest was shown in the election of a school director at the school house Saturday evening. Frank Hamilton's term having expired, he was a candidate for re-election, but J. H. Williamson, his opponent, was elected.

Mrs. E. L. Bradley, of Allendale Farm, entertained several visiting ladies at the library at Allendale Tuesday afternoon at an informal tea. Mrs. Harold Murray, of Chicago, addressed the group. John Tallishah furnished a group of violin numbers, and Miss Olive Hansen sang, with Miss Mildred Robinson at the piano.

The Woman's Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. C. B. Hamlin last Tuesday afternoon. Thirty women were present. Mrs. Vida White, of Millburn, sang a group of songs; Mrs. Badenoch, of Forest Park, gave a talk on the subject, "Using the Golden Minutes." The following officers were elected: Mrs. Vergne Nixon, president; Mrs. Vida White, vice president; Mrs. Natalie Marks, recording secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy Frye, corresponding secretary. The hostess committee, consisting of Mrs. Pederson, Mrs. C. Sherwood and Mrs. Al Maier, served cake and coffee.

F. R. Sherwood was in Chicago on business, Wednesday.

Howard Myers, who underwent an operation for blood tumor on his leg, at the Shriners' hospital in Oak Park two weeks ago, is recovering nicely.

A group of women met at the home of Mrs. Paul Avery last Thursday afternoon. Miss Lulu Black, of the University of Illinois, spoke to the group on Home Bureau work with a view to organization here.

Miss Mabel Scott, of Elmhurst, Ill., called on friends here Sunday.

A grass fire in Buena park Sunday, near Cedar Crest country club, was the cause of much uneasiness among the cottagers, and the Antioch and Fox Lake fire departments were called for assistance.

Mrs. Harriet Mitchell, Mrs. George Mitchell and Helen Ann, of Chicago, spent Saturday and Sunday with the James Korr. Mr. Mitchell came out for Sunday.

Howard Wilton visited friends in Chicago last week.

Mrs. Alpaugh entertained a few ladies at a quilting party at the parsonage last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Maier spent Wednesday in Chicago.

Miss Helen Wilson participated in a piano recital in Chicago Tuesday as one of Miss McLaughlin's pupils.

Notice to Lot Holders.
Notice is hereby given to lot holders in the Angola cemetery, Lake Villa, to please pay to Mrs. William Shish, secretary of the Angola association, 1931 dues of $2 per year on each lot apportioned the holders. Many lot holders have not paid dues for 1929 and 1930. If their lots are to be taken care of this season, these dues must be paid within a reasonable time. The cemetery association wishes to state that the summer upkeep expenses must be paid with money received as dues; and unless dues are paid, it will be impossible to take care of all lots throughout the entire summer. The association also states that the savings account which exists never has and never can be used for this purpose.

Mrs. Joe Huck spent a couple of days last week with relatives in Chicago.

Mrs. Alice Mitchell, of Chicago, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hucker, a few days last week and her little son is with his grandparents for a while.

GERMAN SALEM FARMER DIES

Village Officers Are Re-Elected; Vote to Hold Elections in Hall

Charles Romie, a former farmer of this community, died at the home of a son, Charles Jr., Monday, April 6, after an illness of two years which became more critical about ten days ago. Mr. Romie was born in Germany February 6, 1842. He served as a soldier in the German army two years before he came to this country, penniless, in 1871. He worked for Charles Gauger, a farmer living near Wilmet. In 1876 he was united in marriage to Minnie Gauger. They lived at the Gauger home a short time then purchased a small farm at Liberty Corner. They sold this and bought the Albert Barber farm, about three-quarters of a mile south of this village, in 1891. They resided here until advanced age made it impossible to carry on farm duties, when they purchased a house in Wilmet, where they lived until the death of Mrs. Romie, three years ago. Mr. Romie made his home with his son since that time. He leaves to mourn his loss, four sons—Louis, of Paddock's Lake, Paul, of Huntington, Charles Jr., of Bristol, and John, of Caledonia, Minn. A daughter, Emma, died at the age of 18, another daughter, Mary (Mrs. Clayton), died at St. Paul four years ago, and three other children died in infancy. He is survived by twenty-two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, two sisters—Mrs. Minnie Kowalski and Mrs. Millie Lentz; and one brother, John, of Fort Atkinson. The funeral services were held at the home of his son Wednesday, at 1, and at the Wilmet Lutheran church, of which he was a member, at 2, the Rev. Mr. J. J. de la Motte officiating. Burial took place in the family plot in Wilmet cemetery.

All of the village officers were re-elected Tuesday, 691 votes being cast. The officers: Arthur Hartnell, chairman; Byron Riggs and Herman Lewis, supervisors; John Evans, clerk; Cornelius Cook, treasurer; William Evans, assessor; George Higgins, Elwyn Minding and Mr. Mutz, constables; Harry Helegesen, justice of the peace. It was also voted that all future elections be held in the hall at Salem.

MAKE THIS 10 gallon test

Here are lower driving costs, far better car performance, for millions of motorists

MOTORISTS everywhere are making this amazing test. It may bring you far more satisfactory driving, far lower car upkeep costs. Here are the facts.

Shell has pioneered a great change in gasoline. It has perfected a new, remarkably high anti-knock fuel. The New Improved Shell 400!

In anti-knock value, the quality all cars now need, this gasoline is far above the ordinary type of motor fuel. Yet it is offered you at the same price as the ordinary kind.

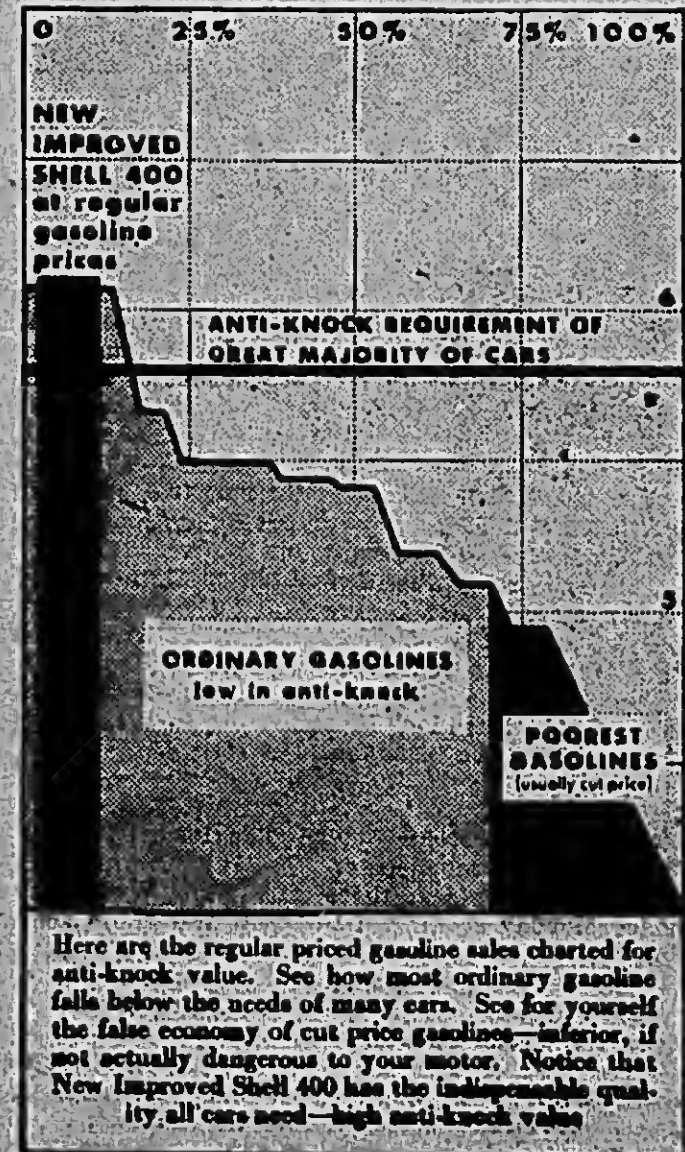

New Improved Shell 400 is Shell's contribution to the cause of low cost motoring. Shell believes motorists are entitled to the real economy, the great improvement in car operation which this new fuel makes possible.

Notice on the chart how much of the ordinary gasoline is below the needs of the modern engine. This fuel was good enough for the engines of years ago—but not up to the needs of the motors of today!

Shell does not ask you to accept its claim of this new, high anti-knock value. It does urge you to try for yourself this fuel developed by Shell research. Prove the facts, in your own car!

Get 10 gallons of New Improved Shell 400. Drive in traffic, on hills, under heavy loads. Let your own motor decide.

Ask your Shell station man about the nationwide mileage test. Enter it, today.

Here are the regular priced gasoline sales charted for anti-knock value. See how most ordinary gasoline falls below the needs of many cars. See for yourself the false economy of cut price gasoline—inferior, if not actually dangerous to your motor. Notice that New Improved Shell 400 has the industry's highest quality, all cars need—high anti-knock value.

NEW IMPROVED SHELL 400

Definitely better than many premium priced fuels, yet sold at regular gasoline prices. High in the quality all cars need—anti-knock value.

Pregenger Wins Racing Trophy In Florida Regatta

Outboard Motors Corporation Praises Antioch Man For Speed Feat

From the news department of the Outboard Motors Corporation comes the following version of Ray Pregenger's feat in winning the Col. E. R. Green Star Island trophy at the regatta, Biscayne Bay, Miami, Fla., recently.

"The one high spot event in the annual Florida racing season is the Colonel Green trophy race in the Miami beach regatta. Highest honors in this event this year go to 4-60-4 cylinder marvel of racing motors. Long remembered will be the sterling performance of Ray Pregenger, 210-pound racing pilot of Antioch, Ill., for his outstanding drive to victory in the frothy, churning waters of Biscayne Bay. Considering the turbulent brine on this trick narrow course, the average time of the winner—40.45 miles per hour—four miles better than any Greene trophy winner has ever run this course and the highest speed of any made in the entire regatta, is nothing short of marvelous.

"Pregenger further added to his Florida laurels by winning first in the hotly contested professional F series in which new competitive motors of every official displacement competed. First prize in this event was $100 in cash—one of many hundreds 4-60 has won for Pregenger and other notable drivers.

"These victories become overwhelming when the weight of boat and driver is considered. Pregenger weighs 210 pounds. His hull, a Century Hurricane, weighed 250 pounds on official scale, with one end of the hull resting on the barge!"

GIRLS NEED "SWEETENING" AND CURVES, JACK DEMPSEY TELLS SOCIAL LEADERS

Says He Found Candy Important as Quick Energy Food in Training for Fights

JACK DEMPSEY, popular in victory and in defeat, is more than one kind of champion. Although he holds no crown, or cup, or studded belt to prove it, Jack believes that few can beat his record as a consumer of plain and fancy sweets. This interesting phase of the former champion heavyweight's life came to light following a few opinions on modern women which he expressed in Newark, N. J., before a group of social leaders.

Among other things, Dempsey said that modern women, moving at a pretty swift pace through business and social activities, needed to eat more sweets. One reason, he gave, was that they needed the quick energy which sweets provide. Another was that many women are injuring their health and losing their attractiveness for men by going in for fad diets in which there are insufficient carbohydrates.

"When I was a kid in Colorado," said Dempsey in an interview following his talk in Newark, "I'd have washed an elephant or wrestled with a bear lots of times if there had been a candy reward in it for me. I got more real fun then out of doing a hard job for a nickel's worth of candy than I did later out of winning some fights for big purses."

"After I entered the ring I began to find that candy put pep into me, without exactly knowing why for a long time. My system craved it, and it acted as an exhilarant, so I decided it must be a natural craving. The harder I trained and the harder I fought the more candy and sweet foods I ate. After a big day or a big bout I took to candy junk as naturally as some men take to highballs to pick themselves up after a strenuous day. I guess some of my friends thought I'd turn into a gumdrop if I kept it up.

"When I came to know something more about fighting and training, I learned that sugar was a quick energy food because the blood took it up almost immediately after it got into the human system. When I found that there was real authority for using sugar as an energy food, it just proved my natural reasoning, but at the time it gave me a good answer for those who wanted to know why I ate so much of it, and that's a big help.

"I was interested a while back to read that some of the big shots in the theatre have made their show girls cut out the dieting and do a little more eating and put on some weight, so that the people out in the back of the audience wouldn't mistake them for jumping bean poles. That sounded like good common sense to me.

"In the movie business the men and women photograph a size or so larger than they really are, so the girls—some of them at least—have a tough time keeping thin enough to suit the directors and producers. A girl may be just the right proportions physically, but the camera may make her look a little overweight, so off she goes and diets.

"Estelle Taylor, that's Mrs. Dempsey, you know, dated for a while when she was in the movies, but she has cut it out on the advice of her doctor. Now that she's eating more of the things that she really likes, including candy, she's feeling better, and it's helping her singing, too. She's making a bid for fame as a dramatic soprano, and can't afford to take chances with her health and stamina. She tells me she's getting better volume and clearer tone, and that's just as important to a singer as a good punch and a quick eye are to a fighter."

April 15, the case of the People vs. the National Tea company of Belvidere was officially closed with a fine of $100 being assessed the defendant. Judge R. V. Carpenter heard the case in the county court.

Dairy farmers throughout Illinois will be vitally affected by this decision. The suit was somewhat of a test case and the first one of its kind to be recorded, thus establishing a precedent for rulings in the event violations are recorded in the future.

Law Passed 34 Years Ago

Illinois farmers discovered only recently that there was a drastic and also law on the statute books of the state which was passed in 1897 but which has never been enforced. This law prohibits the sale in Illinois of any butter substitutes colored to look like butter. The reason this law has not been enforced previously is that its enforcement is left to the state's attorneys but they are required to act only "on complaint." The action of congress in levying a 10 cent tax per pound on oleomargarine caused inquiry to be made regarding state laws with the result that the Illinois anti-oleomargarine law was uncovered.

Farmers throughout the state are planning to see that this law is now enforced. In view of the fact that the groceryman is subject to a fine of $50 to $200 or sixty days in jail, it is not likely that he will persist in carrying oleomargarine in stock. Obviously the farmers will profit because of the increased consumption of real butter and the consequent raise in price which might be effected.

HintsCheer-Up If You

Minus Aging LinesLittle Nose-to-Mouth Lines
Can Be Massaged and Smiled Away

Some people err in calling the droopy little lines that form from nose to mouth, "laugh wrinkles." Often these lines come because we do not smile enough, rather than too much.

Doris Hale, beauty expert, gives some helpful tips.

"In order to smooth away these droopy lines, it is necessary first of all to tone up the relaxed muscles by nature's own method—the smiling habit. By that I do not mean that you must go around with a grin on your face all the time, for you can learn to lift your mouth corners without smiling broadly. Practice making pleasant faces instead of sad ones.

"I also want to tell you about a few simple massage movements that will accomplish wonders with the little nose-to-mouth lines. Of course your face must be perfectly clean before you begin, so with gentle upward motions spread cleansing cream all over your face and neck, and then wipe it off with fluffy cleansing tissues. After the cleansing cream has been removed, whisk little pads of cotton saturated with a slightly astringent skin tonic over your face. This will remove all traces of the cleansing cream.

"Now for the droopy lines: Dip your index or middle finger tips into tissue cream or skin food. If your skin is normal or inclined to be oily, use tissue cream, but if your face is dry, use skin food. And if your face is plump, even if your skin is dry, choose tissue cream, because it is nonfatting. Smooth the cream over your face, especially around your nose and mouth. Do careful not to press hard with your finger tips, and do not pull the skin.

"Then when your face is well coated with cream, dip your finger tips into muscle oil. Placing the middle and index fingers of each hand at the corners of your upper lip, gently smooth outward toward your cheeks. Repeat these smoothing movements again and again—until the droopy places come alive, and you feel a tendency to smile, and lift up those tired, lax muscles. As your finger tips stroke gently across these lines, something then away gradually, the rich, slightly astringent muscle oil acts like hundreds of little fingers patting and smoothing your face. And the skin food or tissue cream softens your skin, and blends with your skin's natural oils.

"If you take this treatment just before you go to bed, it is beneficial to leave the cream and oil on your skin all night, unless your skin is abnormally oily. But if you take this facial during the day, remove all the cream and oil by the same basic cleansing with which you started."

Experiences such as that of Mr. Harry Winchester, 31 Winchester Avenue, Charlestown, near Boston, are worth reading. He says: "An operation so weak ended me that I could barely get about. I had no appetite and became illious and weak. Konjola restored my appetite, regulated my stomach and liver, and brought me the first real relief I had known in years."

And now Mrs. Annie Goodrich, 144 Broadway, Chelsea, near Boston, has this to say: "I had rheumatic fever and my limbs became so swollen that I was helpless. I suffered frightfully and could not turn in bed without aid. Konjola helped me from the first. Today Mrs. Annie Goodrich I am up and about and free from pain and misery. The swelling has left my limbs. I cannot recommend Konjola enough."

The files of Konjola contain thousands of such statements.

Catering To The Male

Men Have Wide Variety of Favorite Dishes; Fried
Bananas, One Choice

DOES men's taste in food differ much from women's? Do women scorn the steak which many men choose as their festive dish? How many healthy men will turn down a pudding with a rich sauce?

While women are supposed to eat more fruit, the man of the house is usually responsible for the disappearance from the fruit bowl of the apples and bananas the children may have left. And speaking of fruit, George Frederick, in his book "Cooking as Men Like It," says one of his favorite dishes is fried bananas. He reports:

"They are the particular, private delight of many men who have once enjoyed them. How is it done properly? You cut some medium ripe bananas into three slices, the long way, and then dip them into beaten egg, and then dust with cracker meal. Now handle them gently with a spatula and place them carefully into a heated iron frying pan, in which plenty of butter has been melted. You fry to a rich brown, then sprinkle with cinnamon and serve with a slice of lemon. Men, you are dining upon one of the best foods a bountiful nature has offered to her favorite offspring!"

Women seem as a rule to like vegetables more than men; but most men are truly devoted to such vegetables as baked potatoes, corn, cabbage and fried onions. Recently nine men were asked their favorite dishes. One selection was fruit, and the rest were:

Steak, French fried onions, apple pie; ham and eggs; cheese cake; cornbeet hash; sweet potatoes with marshmallows; pumpkin pie with maple syrup.

The recipe for some of these favorite "man" dishes may be helpful.

Sweet Potatoes with Marshmallows
6 sweet potatoes; hot milk; butter; marshmallows; seasoning.

Cook the sweet potatoes until soft. Pare, press through the ricer, and add seasoning and hot milk enough to make a soft consistency.

Add a tablespoon of butter to each pint of potatoes and place in a greased baking-dish. Cover with marshmallows and bake in a hot oven 500° F. until brown. Two or three sliced bananas or one cup shredded pineapple may be added to the potatoes after they are made.

Pumpkin Pie with Maple Syrup

1 1/2 cups cooked pumpkin; 1/2 cup brown sugar; 1 teaspoon cinnamon; 1 teaspoon nutmeg; 1/2 teaspoon ginger; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 3 eggs; 2 cups milk.

The pumpkin may be steamed or baked or canned pumpkin may be used. Mix in the order given and bake on crust like a custard pie in a hot oven 450° F. for ten minutes. Then lower temperature to 325° F. and bake until set. Serve hot or cold, garnish with whipped cream. Just before serving pour maple syrup over the cream.

Hints For Homemakers
By Jane Rogers

In selecting oranges for beverage purposes, or for any purpose in which the amount of juice is particularly important, remember that some varieties are much juicier than others. Size for size, the heavier fruit is always the juicier.

It's often helpful to have firmly fixed in your memory a few of the standard kitchen measures. One salt spoon equals three-quarters of a teaspoon; three teaspoons equal one tablespoon; sixteen tablespoons equal one cup; two cups equal one pint.

BUSINESS WOMEN
OFTEN ENVY WIVESHousewife's Scope Is Not Limited to Four Walls
Of a Room

Years ago, before civilized lands became so frank in portraying conditions as they are, most books pictured the mother as a sweet, frail, sacrificing individual whose heart, mind and soul were anxiously absorbed in the interests of her job as a homemaker.

Followed a decided swing of the pendulum: Independent wives left the home for the business world, and regarded housework as drudgery.

With the reversion by the 1931 girl to the "feminine" garments may come a more reasonable view on the duties of homemaking.

Some housewives, when politics, news stories, or the latest prowesses of their children have been exhausted, dial up the endless meals to cook, dishes to wash, beds to make, children to clothe.

Anyone who has worked at many tasks, and for many employers, sooner or later comes to the conclusion that every job has its drawbacks and its compensations.

Mothers who wouldn't trade one of their children for a million dollars, sometimes envy the business woman; but that business woman may be lonely, longing for a home of her own.

The housewife is (more or less) her own boss. She may think that her work is never done, but if she desires to take an afternoon off, she is free to do so.

Children, in spite of their occasional outbursts, and the constant labor in their behalf, are something of your own. They are forever surprising you with new developments, and a real mother finds that children provide a source of amusement and education, and interest. As they grow, they are able to save you many steps, too.

Housework is a laboratory from which you may acquire a liberal education. It is a gymnasium which affords a variety of activities—sewing, cooking, cleaning, ironing, and many more. It takes you "upstairs, downstairs, and in midday's chamber," and out into the garden where the sun is shining. It is a poor housewife who does not frequently lift her nose from the grindstone and get it sunburned, chasing a butterfly.

TOPPY'S TRAVELS

Synopsis: Toppo leaves home to follow his canary. After many adventures, he and his friends, Mr. Frog and Toy, the drowdrop, cause the Cushions to fight the Pillows. Thus they hope to rescue their Cloud-Queen, whose land is invaded by the Pillows. Mr. Frog leaves to warn the Cushions against the Pillows, as the Queen, after reading the warning in a pool, bids him do. Continue.

Toppo soon grew impatient after Mr. Frog's departure. There was nothing to do—he couldn't play with the Maldens as they were too delicate, and Toy was not there. He longed for Mr. Frog's return so that he could begin training the Cloud-people for war. "What are we going to do until Mr. Frog comes back?" Toppo asked the Queen.

"I must fetch the other Maldens here to get water and color," replied the Queen. "As I can bring only three at one trip, that will take a long time."

Toppo groaned. He had no desire to journey through the long tunnel, time after time, until all the Maldens had received nourishment.

"Why couldn't we take the flowers to your Maldens?" Toppo thought that this would be a much better plan.

"No, Toppo, they would not receive enough benefit from that. Do you know why we have such beautiful colors and rainbow hues?"

Toppo had often wondered. "No, I don't know," he answered. "Why are you so beautiful?"

The Queen smiled, and radiated more brightly than before. "The flowers lead us some of their color, but they can do that only while they are alive and growing. So, if we picked these flowers and took them to my Maldens, they would not be fresh."

"But you have gone without flowers for such a long time," said Toppo. "How have you kept your colors so bright?"

"Hope," replied the Queen, "and faith; kindness and courtesousness; and the joy of having friends like you, Toy, and Mr. Frog."

Toppo smiled back at the Queen. "I wish that people in my land could become beautiful like that."

"Why, Toppo, I believe that they can, if you are an example," the Queen laughed.

Toppo laughed, too, although he did not know exactly why.

"I must begin my journeys now so that all my Maldens will get back their bright colors," sighed the Queen. "It will take a long time, but it will be worth it. I shall start at once."

"Can I help you?" Toppo asked.

"No, stay here, and watch till some word from Mr. Frog reaches us. You can keep yourself company."

The Queen and her two Maldens departed for the throne room, leaving Toppo alone.

A darkness settled over the room, and a doubt rose in Toppo's mind: "I wonder if I shall be safe here?"

"Of course I shall be safe," Toppo stoutly reassured himself, speaking aloud. But he went to the door to see if it was securely locked.

He heard a faint noise without, and listened carefully.

Toppo listened, then murmured dispiritedly. "I thought that Mr. Frog might be coming back, but it was only a guard."

Then a sudden horrible thought came to him. What if Mr. Frog should come back, while the Cloud-Queen has the key? Then the guards would find him, and capture him!

Boys Receive Emblems of Award for Work on Judging Teams

A group of eighty-six boys and dads gathered in the high school dining room Friday evening for the eighth annual banquet of the Antioch chapter of the Future Farmers of America. A chicken dinner was served by the girls of the home economics club. Charles A. Stookey, WLS director, who had to have given the main address of the evening was unable to be present because of illness, but local men proved excellent substitutes.

The program was opened by an address of welcome from the president of the chapter, William Nielsen. He also read the program of work for the local chapter for the year beginning October 1, 1930. Fred Griffin demonstrated his ability as an old time fiddler and provided music for the program.

Receive Awards.

According to the custom in past years, a certificate of honorary recognition was presented to C. F. Richards for his work in promoting agriculture in this community. At this time four boys were presented with sweater emblems for their work in the local chapter. Norman Barthel and Harry Johnson received a small emblem for their work on the poultry judging team at the national 4-H club judging contest. Ward Edwards received a large emblem for placing first individual in grain judging in the sectional contest last fall. Kenneth Denman also received a large emblem for his work as state reporter. Roland Olasman gave a talk on "A National Land Policy." This was the talk he gave at the sectional public speaking contest. Funeral services were held for old man Olo. The sermon was preached by "the Rev." Jasper McCormack. Mr. Petty, Lake county superintendent of schools, gave a short talk. Albert Horman and Mr. McCormack completed the program.

A momentary fit of anger may cost us a dear friend, may lose us our job, may even bring a real tragedy into our life. What then is the use? When calm succeeds the storm we usually find that we are the only ones who have been hurt.—GRIFF

"GAP IN PAVEMENT" SIGNS TO DISAPPEAR FROM ILLINOIS ROADS

Highway Department Will Speed Up the Work in Metropolitan Area

(Antioch News Special Service)
Chicago, Ill., April 15.—Car owners in the Chicago metropolitan area who become annoyed after driving on smooth concrete when they encounter a "Gap in Pavement" sign and the ensuing jolting at slow speed over a strip varying in degrees of roughness are assured by the Illinois state highway department that these conditions will be eliminated this year.

The highway department recently announced, according to the Chicago motor club, that it had made a survey of all gaps in the area in question, and that they would be paved this summer.

Most of the gaps, the club pointed out, are at railroad crossings, or on "fills," which in reality is built-up land, or in low, soft areas. It was explained that they were left at railroad crossings because grade separations were contemplated in the future. Pavement was omitted on "made" land and in soft areas in order to give the road foundation time to settle permanently. The general policy was to refrain from laying concrete where there was a possibility that it might have to be torn up or replaced within a few years.

"While it is true that concrete laid at a railroad crossing must be broken up when construction of a grade separation is begun, it costs less than maintaining the unpaved strip," the department announced. "Gaps over soft ground will be paved because a method of saving the concrete from breaking when the ground settles has been discovered. The method consists of pumping a mixture of mud and cement underneath the concrete, raising it to its original level. It has been demonstrated that this method will preserve the smoothness of the pavement, and will provide a permanent foundation."

AMUSEMENTS

KENOSHA THEATRE

Seven leading film funsters contributed directly to the rollicking success of the Radio Picture comedy, "Cracked Nuts," which is being shown at the Kenosha Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of next week, yet no two of them agree on why people laugh, or what constitutes screen humor.

Bert Wheeler says: "Give the audience a superiority complex by making yourself seem a nitwit. Then they laugh out of sheer good nature."

Robert Woolsey says the opposite: "Outsmart your audience with whip lash wisecracks. You can easily drive them into the laugh groove."

Edward Cline, who directed the picture believed the old formula that a plot in the face will get laughs where everything else may fail.

Douglas MacLean, associate producer of the comedy, believes the humor must be in the situation.

Al Boasberg, writer and wack crack artist, believes that fun must lie in the lines of a play.

Ralph Spence believes in lines, too—filled with subtle humor.

"I make faces," says Edna May Oliver.

"This very difference of opinion has given 'Cracked Nuts' a variety of laughs which makes it the outstanding fun film of the year," says MacLean, in summing up the fine points of the picture.

Others in the cast of "Cracked Nuts" are Dorothy Lee, Leal Stengel, Stanley Fields, Harvey Clark and Boris Karloff.

ANTIOCH THEATRE

The Epworth League is sponsoring a movie, "The Crisles," to be given at the Crystal theatre April 29 and 30. This is the Passion Play—the story of the life of Christ—and has been photographed in the Holy Land at a cost of $3,000,000. The admission will be 35 and 15 cents.

WOOGIE GIVES A PARTY

It's a great yarn that I'm goin' to spin for you today. My pals, Kangy and Singoot were cruisin' with my old shipmate, Tops' Barney. In my last yarn I told how we'd been becalmed off an island in th' China Sea, and how, when we landed on th' island, I had found Woogie, an ape that I had made friends with one time when I had been cast away on th' same island.

Well a'r, th' next mornin' after I'd found Woogie he came off to th' schooner ridin' that crocodile of his. From his jabberin' I got th' meanin' that he wanted Kangy, Singoot, and me to go back to th' island with him. So we hitched th' crocodile to th' ship's boat, piled in, and in no time we landed on th' beach off th' island.

And there was Missus Woogie waitin' for us. Th' youngster was a cute little feller, and we were pals right from th' start. Then, what a feast of breadfruit, pineapples, guavas, mangoes, bananas, and other good things Missus Woogie spread for us under th' palm-trees. After we'd eaten our fill we all laid down in th' shade. Bein' in th' tropics, it was warm and nice. We had a good sleep, and didn't wake up till th' light of a big, golden moon made th' island almost as light as day.

Then, in a little clearin', with th' warm breeze rustlin' th' tops of th' palm-trees above us, we danced and capered around like a bunch of kids. By gravity it was great! Later, we bid Missus Woogie and th' little feller good-bye, climbed into th' boat with Woogie, and th' crocodile towed us out to th' Lanul, our schooner. Some day I'm goin' to visit th' Woogies again.
